HANNA EMELIE ERNSTING

Hanna Emelie Ernsting is a German-American designer, born 1983 in Göttingen, a University town in the centre of Germany. From 2004 to 2010 she studied product design at the HfG in Karlsruhe and at the ENSAD in Paris. Hanna started her own design studio in Frankfurt in 2011. Since then her designs have been exhibited at fairs and exhibitions worldwide and her work has been distinguished with awards such as the Interior Innovation Award by the German Design Council.

« The desire to relax at home, the little joys of everyday life and honesty serve as a constant inspiration for my designs. My motto is to stay open minded, to be yourself, to play and try things out, to be committed and persistent. Never give up, but let go when necessary and most of all enjoy what you do. »

PETSTOOLS...

ACCORDING TO IT DESIGNER :

« PETSTOOLS are not only stools, but delightfully playful and cozy companions enhanced with new aspects. You can put your feet up... or plunge them into the soft material to warm them. »

Ella, Daisy and Fin, are an invitation to curl hands and feet into the folds of material. Straight from the world of Hanna Emelie Ernsting, PETSTOOLS are ready to invade our homes, ensuring with their quilted fabrics and padded bodies a comfortable welcoming seat. PETSTOOLS have removable covers, this facilitating maintenance of the covers by dry cleaning. Which animal will you adopt ?
