Introducing Plinth Pedestal – a new addition to the ever-growing Plinth Collection.

The pedestal has long been used to elevate objects and spaces. Once the reserve of museums, the practical object is now making its mark in private homes – as a sculptural and space-saving display for ornamental objects.

Enter the Plinth Pedestal, the latest piece to join Audo's Plinth Collection, designed by Norm Architects. Uplifting in every sense, its tall and slender silhouette is offered in a range of beautiful materials including purple-veined Calacatta Viola marble, white-veined Grey Kendzo marble and Kunis Breccia, a natural, sand-coloured stone rich in mineral fragments

Filling negative space with depth and dimension, Plinth Pedestal lets a favourite object take pride of place. Ideal for filling an empty corner of a room, it can be used alone or to highlight a family heirloom, floral arrangement or favourite sculpture.

About the designer

Founded in Copenhagen in 2008 by Jonas Bjerre-Poulsen and Kasper Rønn, Norm Architects specialise in residential architecture, commercial interiors, industrial design, photography and art direction. The name, Norm Architects, reflects the group's emphasis on the importance of drawing inspiration from norms and traditions within architecture and design – particularly the Scandinavian design principles of timeless aesthetics and natural materials, and the modernist values of restraint and refinement. Guided by these principles, Norm Architects produce a design that unites materials and craftsmanship, while embodying beauty, history and, most importantly, timeless simplicity, where there is nothing more to add or take away. Today, the group regularly collaborates with Audo, helping to drive the evolution of the brand and its product offerings —imbued with the same intrinsic quality as Norms creative direction: a simplicity that carries bigger ideas. Lead by the body and mind rather than by trends or technology, their projects explore ideas that not only look good but that also feel good: architecture becomes thoughtful, minimalism acquires softness and visual matter assumes haptic qualities.
