BURRA LOUNGE CHAIR VENTURES OUTSIDE

Simon Legald's iconic, burrata-inspired Burra Lounge Chair now brings its signature comfort and sculptural elegance to the great outdoors. Designed for durability, this new outdoor version retains the enveloping embrace and organic silhouette of the original while incorporating materials crafted for open-air environments.

The chair maintains its plush, burrata-inspired shape, offering unparalleled comfort and visual appeal. Its base has been upgraded to waterproof painted wood, ensuring resilience against the elements. A custom protective cover is included, designed for easy use. When not in use, the cover shields the Burra Lounge Chair, preserving its elegance and extending its lifespan.

With its inherent comfort and striking silhouette, the Burra Outdoor Lounge Chair transforms terraces, patios, and gardens into inviting, modern living spaces. Its distinctive presence makes a statement in any outdoor setting, whether as a standalone piece or paired with other furniture.

“Bringing Burra outdoors meant preserving its softness, comfort, and sculptural elegance while ensuring it thrives in natural environments,” says designer Simon Legald. “The result is a chair that not only endures the elements but elevates any outdoor experience.”

Burra Lounge Chair Outdoor is scheduled to be available online and in stores from beginning of March. Due to current circumstances, delays may occur.
